Birmingham, AL - On Sunday, October 13, Vulcan Park and Museum continues its Vulcan AfterTunes concert series featuring Grammy award-winning Rebirth Brass Band and Birmingham's local band Fisher Green. Enjoy cool tunes, fresh brews and sweet views on Sunday afternoons with your favorite cast iron statue, Vulcan. Chill out in Birmingham's backyard and end your week with some of the area's best music while witnessing spectacular views of Birmingham's city skyline. The annual three-part concert series features local and national singer/songwriter acts often heard on Birmingham Mountain Radio. Grab your lawn chairs and blankets and bring the whole family out to relax and play under the shadow of Vulcan!

Concerts will begin at 3 p.m. on select Sundays - October 13 and October 27. Admission is $15 general admission, $7.50 for Vulcan Members and free for children 12 and under. Ticket price includes live music and admission to Vulcan's Observation Tower and Museum. Tickets and seating are first-come, first-served. Light snacks, beer, wine and soft drinks will be available for purchase. No pets or outside alcohol allowed.

About Vulcan® Park and Museum

Vulcan Park and Museum is one of Birmingham's most popular attractions with state-of-the-art facilities that provide visitors from all over the world with insightful history lessons about our region. The centerpiece of this historic complex is Vulcan, the largest cast iron statue in the world. The museum shares with all visitors the city's history, its influential residents and the events that not only shaped our city, but an entire nation. The park also features meeting and event space indoors and out for public events or private functions, and a gift shop with Birmingham and Vulcan memorabilia perfectly suited to welcome new residents, visitors to the region, or to have in a home or office.

Vulcan Park and Museum is a 501©3 organization. All proceeds from ticket purchases will be used to support Vulcan Park and Museum's mission to preserve and promote Vulcan as the symbol for the Birmingham region, advance knowledge and understanding of Birmingham's history and culture, and to encourage exploration of the region.
