Birmingham, AL - Each Spring, Vulcan Park and Museum hosts a series of Walking Tours which highlight different areas around Birmingham. Tours offer recent and longtime residents alike a fun, invigorating way to experience the history and architectural beauty of Birmingham's neighborhoods and districts. As much about people as place, our walking tours invite participants to step into the shoes of the architects, visionaries, socialites and entrepreneurs who sparked the magic in the Magic City.

TICKETS: General Admission $12; Vulcan Members $10

Space is limited! Reservations and payment required in advance. Tour participants will be notified of the meeting location for their tour during the week prior to the event.
