Vulcan Park and Museum Presents its 2015 Walking Tour Series

Birmingham, Ala. — Each Spring, Vulcan Park and Museum hosts a series of Walking Tours which highlight different areas of Birmingham. Tours offer recent and longtime residents alike a fun, invigorating way to experience the history and architectural beauty of Birmingham's neighborhoods and districts. As much about people as place, our walking tours invite participants to step into the shoes of the architects, visionaries, socialites and entrepreneurs who sparked the magic in the Magic City.

When: Saturday March 21, April 11, and May 2, 2015

Schedule: March 21: Turning Another Corner - Recent Downtown Projects
April 11: A New UAB - Shaping the West Campus
May 2: Edgewood - Time to Get Proactive

Tickets: Tickets are $10 for members and $12 for non-members and can be purchased at eventbrite.com.

Space is limited! Reservations and payment are required in advance. Tour participants will be notified of the meeting location for their tour during the week prior to the event.
